Dragonflies Summer 1 theme: Traditional tales and Nursery Rhymes

Dragonflies weekly topic: 'Sleeping Beauty'

- Next week the dragonflies will be reading the story 'Sleeping Beauty'. Children will be focussing on story re-call, name writing, number correspondence, expressing their own views and holding and using tools correctly.
- Dragonflies will be exploring magic potion shop where they will be pouring and mixing a variety of materials with water in different sized pots, they will use large recycling to create their own magical castles, they will mould and craft magical sparkly crowns in the malleable area and practice writing their names in the mark making area.
- Dragonflies will enjoy being witches creating potions, they will focus on number correspondence as they read the potion ingredient list and match the amount of items in the potion to the list. They will have fun with a magic science experiment as they add mentos and glitter to fizzy pop and watch it fizz and gurgle.

In the Ladybirds Continuous Provision They will be:

- This week the Ladybirds have shown an interest in Café, making and serving food. Constructing and building towers, making ramps for the cars, playing in the sand and in the water.
- Next week the Ladybirds will access the Café role play again, but it will be stocked with real foods, the adults will play partner in the role play and ask the children to make different dishes with the real food.
- Next week the Ladybirds will explore the transporting, transforming and trajectory schema's in the sand, construction and small world areas.

Star of the week!

This week we are saying a big WELL DONE to...

Leo C

For joining in so beautifully at carpet time and working hard on his numbers

You super star!
